When, Why and Who

The President's Volunteer Service Award (PVSA) was established in 2003 by the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation, which was created by President George W. Bush through an executive order.

The program is led by AmeriCorps and managed in partnership with Points of Light.

Vision: To honor and recognize the significant contributions of individuals, families, and groups volunteers across the United States, encouraging a sustained commitment to civic participation and inspiring others to engage in volunteer service.
